

CENTRAL PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT

PRESS BRIEF

Laying of Foundation Stone by the Hon'ble Prime Minister of India on February 3, 2019 for establishment of New AIIMS at Vijaynagar, Samba, Jammu, to be developed by the Central Public Works Department

Hon'ble Prime Minister of India shall lay foundation stone for establishment of New AIIMS at Vijaynagar, Samba, Jammu to be developed by the Central Public Works Department on February 3, 2019 at Jammu.

Proposed New AIIMS with State of the Art, most advanced facilities shall be developed by the CPWD in a plot area of 258 Acres at a cost of about 1400 crores (excluding cost of medical equipments), in a period of four years. The complex shall include 750 bedded Hospital with 75 ICUs, 18 Super Specialty Departments, 12 OPDs, 16 OTs, Academic Buildings such as Medical College for 100 students, Nursing College for 60 students and School for Public Health, besides Residential Complex for Doctors & Staff, Hostel for Students, Night Shelter, Shopping Complex, Sports Complex, Transit Accommodation, Services and other buildings.

New and fast construction technology, ecofriendly green and energy efficient features shall be used in the construction. On site solar power units, sewage treatment plant for recycling of waste water, rain water harvesting and decomposers for handling the waste shall be installed. The campus shall be a magnificent blend of Architecture and Engineering.
