Dated: 15th September, 2011

Subject: Procuring CPWD contracts by making false entries in office order relating to the enlistment of contractors

During the course of investigation of a complaint relating to procuring CPWD contracts through tampering and false entry in the contractor's enlistment Order issued by the CPWD, it has been noted by the Vigilance Unit that a contractor has managed to secure works by means of manipulating and falsifying the CPWD's contractor's enlistment order.

The Central Vigilance Commission has advised to check and verify the authenticity of the list as downloaded from the website to trace out any impersonation and also to verify the proof of financial soundness as well as the tendering limit which can be done through random checks as per norms. Further, the Commission has desired that list of all the registered/enlisted CPWD contractors (all the class & category) should be uploaded on the CPWD web site by the respective enlistment authorities and synchronized with data in VIGEYE-GPMS.

2. In pursuance to the above, all the concerned officials are directed to take the following action within a month and submit compliance report :-

- (v) All the enlistment authorities of CPWD should upload the list of registered CPWD contractors on CPWD website and ensure that it is regularly updated. The concerned ADGs shall monitor the uploading of said list on the website in respect of contractors of all the categories and class registered under their region.
- (vi) Checking and verification of authenticity of contractors by the concerned contract awarding authority against the list of CPWD registered contractors either available with the respective registration authorities or on CPWD website so as to trace out any manipulation, forgery. If any such matter by a firm/individual is found during the checking and verification, the same should be immediately brought to the notice of Vigilance Unit as well as registering authority concerned.
